4000 tumblers designed by students await for WCDRR participants

Hand drawings and messages in tumblers

Sendai students in primary and junior high schools joined the tumbler project to welcome the WCDRR participants. They put their hand drawings and messages in acrylic tumblers and give it to WCDRR participants as gift. The WCDRR hosting Sendai city aims to raise students' interests on the event.

Twenty two of Year 5 and 6 students in Kamisugiyama Dori Primary School worked to finish their work started during their winter holidays.

Students were working hard to finish their work and commented, “I was thinking of overseas visitors. I hope they will enjoy Sendai.”, “I painted with bright colors so that our recovery will go quickly. I wish to contribute to WCDRR” In total, 4000 of primary and junior high schools students in Sendai worked on this project. The Sendai Committee for the UN World Conference on Disaster Risk Reduction will give the tumblers to the conference participants.
